Girls Plan Program Featured on Bridging the Gap Telecast

ATLANTA - Mrs. Nishaline Hines, Founder, of Girls Plan Organization, Inc., a non-profit organization dedicated to serving young women is the featured guest on the next episode of Bridging the Gap. The broadcast aired on Wednesday, September 13th at 10:00 pm on channel 22 on Charter Communications and will air again on Thursday, September 14, 2006 at 10:30 pm on channel 22 on Charter Communications.

Mrs. Hines developed, Girls Plan, the spiritually inspired and directed plan for young women and teens, to assist them in truly understanding their self-worth and priceless value. Her mission is to equip this generation with the necessary tools to successfully navigate the issues and perplexities of life in today's society.

This telecast is just one of many of the community events Girls Plan has participated in during the kick-off week before their six session program which begins this Saturday, September 16, 2006. The workshops are entitled, Who AM I?, They Don't Get It, It's Just the Beat, He Loves Me, It Was On Sale and No One Else Has. The fall seminars will be held at The Defoor Center, located at 1710 Defoor Ave, NW, just north of downtown Atlanta.
