Girls Plan Organization Featured on Straight Talk with Edna Parrish on V103.3 FM

ATLANTA - Mrs. Nishaline Hines, Founder, and Mrs. Tomeko Houston, Dir. Of Marketing of Girls Plan Organization, Inc., a non-profit organization dedicated to serving young women, were guests of Mrs. Edna Parrish on Straight Talk. The interview aired on Sunday, November 12th at 5:30 am on V103.3 WAOK/WVEE and will air again on Saturday, November 18th.

Nishaline Hines developed, Girls Plan, the spiritually inspired and directed plan for young women and teens, to assist them in truly understanding their self-worth and priceless value. Her mission is to equip this generation with the necessary tools to successfully navigate the issues and complexities of life in today's society.

This interview is just one of many of the community events Girls Plan has participated in during their workshop programs. Their next workshop on November 18th, It was on Sale, a fashion show for teen participants, is open to the public. The fall seminars will be held at The Defoor Center, located at 1710 Defoor Ave, NW, just north of downtown Atlanta.
